Flu Season is here! Veterans protect yourselves and get a NO COST flu shot!

The cold and flu season is upon us and the Department of Veterans Affairs has once again teamed up with Walgreens Pharmacies nationwide to allow all veterans who are currently enrolled in the VA healthcare system to be able walk into any of the over 8000 Walgreens nationally (and the Duane Reade pharmacies in the New York metropolitan area) to receive a vaccination at no cost. Vaccinations will be available through March 31, 2018.

Veterans wishing to receive the no cost vaccination simply need to present a Veterans Identification Card and a photo ID, at any participating Walgreens to receive the vaccination. The Group ID is: VAFLU

In addition, after the Walgreens pharmacist administers the vaccine Walgreens will transmit that information securely to VA where it becomes part of the patient’s electronic medical record.

VA is committed to keeping Veteran patients healthy, and during this flu season, vaccination is the best way to prevent the spread of flu. No matter where you live, visit your local VA clinic or Walgreens to get a no cost flu shot.

- To find your local VA, visit va.gov/directory/guide/home.asp.
- To locate a Walgreens store near you, call 800-WALGREENs (800-925-4733), or go to com/findastore.
- To learn more about the partnership, call 1-877-771-8537 or visit https://www.va.gov/COMMUNITYCARE/programs/veterans/immunization.asp.

2. CHANGES ARE COMING TO TRICARE. ARE YOU READY?

Changes are coming to your TRICARE benefit beginning January 1, 2018. These changes will give you more benefit choices, improving your access to care and simplifying cost shares. The best way to prepare is to [update your information in DEERS](http://update your information in DEERS), [sign up](http://sign up) for TRICARE benefit updates, and visit the TRICARE Changes page.

TRICARE Is Changing. Here is what you need to know:

Region Consolidation
Currently, there are three TRICARE regions in the U.S. to include TRICARE North, South and West. The TRICARE North and South regions will combine to form TRICARE East, while TRICARE West will remain mostly unchanged. Two new contractors, Humana Military and Health Net Federal Services, will administer these regions. This change will allow better coordination between the military hospitals and clinics and the civilian health care providers in each region.

TRICARE Select
A new program, TRICARE Select will replace TRICARE Standard and TRICARE Extra both stateside and overseas. Stateside, TRICARE Select will be a self-managed, preferred provider network option. You will not be required to have a primary care manager (PCM) and therefore you can visit any TRICARE-authorized provider. An authorized provider is any individual, institution/organization, or supplier that is licensed by a state, accredited by national organization, or meets other standards of the medical community, and is certified to provide benefits under TRICARE. There are two types of TRICARE-authorized providers: Network and Non-Network, for services covered by TRICARE without a referral. Overseas, TRICARE Overseas Select will be a preferred provider organization-styled plan that provides access to both network and non-network TRICARE authorized providers for medically necessary services. TRICARE Select adopts a number of improvements, including additional preventive care services previously only offered to TRICARE Prime beneficiaries.

TRICARE Prime
TRICARE Prime is a managed care program option. An assigned PCM provides most of your care. When you need specialty care, your PCM will refer you to a specialist. Active duty service members and their family members do not pay anything when referred to a network provider by their PCM. All others pay annual enrollment fees and network copayments.

Enrollment
All current TRICARE beneficiaries will be automatically enrolled into plans on January 1, 2018 as long as they are eligible. TRICARE Prime enrollees will remain in TRICARE Prime. TRICARE Standard and Extra beneficiaries will be enrolled in TRICARE Select. During 2018, you can choose to enroll in or change coverage plans. Enrollment will move to a calendar year open enrollment period beginning in the fall of 2018, during which active enrollment will be required for coverage for the following year. The open enrollment period for will begin on the Monday of the second full week in November and run through the Monday of the second full week in December of each calendar year.

Are You Ready? Take Action Now:
You can begin to prepare for the upcoming changes now by:

3. ANNUAL CONSENT FOR AUTOMATIC PRESCRIPTION REFILLS BEGINS SEPT. 1
Beginning Sept. 1, 2017, Express Scripts will need annual consent from patients who want to receive automatic refills of their maintenance medications enrolled in TRICARE Pharmacy Home Delivery. This means that just before one of your prescriptions runs out of refills, Express Scripts will reach out to you to know if you would like your doctor to be contacted to renew the prescription and if you’d like to continue in the Automatic Refill program. If not, Express Scripts will not refill your prescription.

“This new process gives beneficiaries more control over their medications and keeps the convenience of automatic refills,” said Amy Aldighere, Express Scripts Sr. Director – DoD Program Management. “It also makes it easier to opt out of the Auto Refill program and helps to prevent beneficiaries from receiving medications that they no longer need or shouldn’t receive.”

What to Expect: When the last refill of a medication enrolled in the Automatic Refill program ships, Express Scripts will reach out to you by telephone and/or email (depending on the preference you indicated) and ask the following:

- Would you like Express Scripts to reach out to your doctor for a new prescription?
- Do you want to keep your medication enrolled in the Auto Refill program?

How to Respond: Express Scripts will not re-enroll your medication unless they hear from you. You have several ways to respond:
Online at Express-Scripts.com/TRICARE
Via the automated phone call from Express Scripts

By calling an Express Scripts Patient Care Advocate (PCA) at 1-877-363-1303

If Express Scripts does not receive your consent within 10 days of reaching out to you, they will remove your medication from the Auto Refill program. However, re-enrolling is simple. You can re-enroll your medication at any time online, or through a PCA.

For more information or if you have questions, go to the Express Scripts website. You can also call Express Scripts at 1-877-363-1303 to speak with a PCA
VA benefits are not just for Veterans. Spouses, children and parents of Veterans may be eligible for various VA benefits too. Jennifer, a wife of a disabled Marine Corps Veteran, utilized VA health care and education benefits for her entire family.

“My experience, from my point of view, has been wonderful. Everybody’s been supportive and I’m grateful,” she says. “It may be a little bit of work, but it’s ultimately worth it in the end.” Not only does her husband use VA health care for help with his disabilities, Jennifer and her children have health care coverage under VA’s CHAMPVA program.

Jennifer also used the Survivors’ and Dependents’ Educational Assistance program to earn her master’s degree and plans to use this benefit for her children as well. Spouses, children and parents of Veterans may also be eligible to receive benefits for:

- Disability compensation
- Employment services
- Home loans
- Life insurance
- Pension
- Memorial benefits

6. 10 OVERLOOKED VA DISABILITIES

   By David Anderson on Sep 18, 2017 at 4:40 p.m.

There are many disabilities veterans and VA medical staff seem to overlook or set aside indefinitely, causing veterans to miss out on a chance to file a claim for a service-connected disability. Take a look at the Top 10 overlooked disabilities missed by veterans and VA medical staff.

1. Erectile Dysfunction — Erectile dysfunction, or ED, is the inability of a man to have an erection hard enough to have sexual intercourse. It can also be known as impotence. It is not unusual for this to happen to a man on occasion, but frequent ED can be a sign of a bigger medical problem that needs attention. ED can also lead to complications in a man's life all on its own.

2. Agoraphobia — The essential feature of Agoraphobia is anxiety about being in (or anticipating) situations from which escape might be difficult or in which help may not be available in the event of having a Panic Attack (or panic-like symptoms). Oftentimes, when in this situation, an individual may have the vague thought that something dreadful may happen. Such concerns must persist for at least six months and occur virtually every time an individual encounters the place or situation (especially those that remind a veteran of battle situations). Agoraphobic fears typically involve characteristic clusters of situations that include being outside the home alone; being in a crowd or standing in a line; being on a bridge; and traveling in a bus, train, or automobile. More specifically, the diagnostic criteria in the DSM-5 requires that an individual experiences intense fear in response to (or when anticipating entering) at least two of the following five situations:

- Using public transportation, such as automobiles, buses, trains, ships, or planes.
- Being in open spaces, such as parking lots, marketplaces, or bridges.
- Being in enclosed spaces, such as shops, theaters, or cinemas.
- Standing in line or being in a crowd.
- Being outside of the home alone.

A person who experiences agoraphobia avoids such situations (e.g., travel is restricted; the person changes daily routines) or else they are endured with significant distress. For example, people with agoraphobia often require the presence of a companion, such as a family member, partner, or friend, to confront the situation.

3. Keloids — A scar that rises quite abruptly above the rest of the skin. It is irregularly shaped, usually pink to red in color, tends to enlarge progressively, and may be harder than the surrounding skin. Keloids are a response to trauma, such as a cut to the skin. In creating a normal scar, connective tissue in the skin is repaired by the formation of collagen. Keloids arise when extra collagen forms.

4. Sexually Transmitted Diseases — Under revision. Check with your local VAO/VSO.

5. Pseudofolliculitis Barbae — A common condition of the beard area occurring in men and other people with curly hair. The problem results when highly curved hairs grow back into the skin causing inflammation and a foreign body reaction. Over time, this can cause scarring which looks like hard bumps of the beard area and neck.

6. Plantar Fasciitis — Plantar fasciitis is the pain caused by inflammation of the insertion of the plantar fascia on the medial process of the calcaneal tuberosity. The pain may be substantial, resulting in the alteration of daily activities. Various terms have been used to describe plantar fasciitis, including jogger's heel, tennis heel, policeman's heel, and even gonorrheal heel. Although a misnomer, this condition is sometimes referred to as heel spurs by the general public.

7. Pleurisy — Pleurisy is inflammation of the parietal pleura that typically results in characteristic pleuritic pain and has a variety of possible causes. The term "pleurisy" is often used to refer to a symptom and a condition. It is more precise to use the term "pleurisy" for the condition and "pleuritic pain" to describe the symptom. Pleuritic pain is a key feature of pleurisy; therefore, this article reviews the physiology and classic characteristics of pleuritic pain, focusing on the presentation and diagnosis of the patient and the management of various causes of pleurisy. Pleuritic chest pain is a common presenting symptom and has many causes, which range from life-threatening to benign, self-limited conditions.

8. Tropical Phagedena (Jungle Rot) — tropical phagedena, Aden ulcer, Malabar ulcer, and jungle rot (from Vietnam), as well as various native terms. It occurs on exposed parts of the body, primarily the legs, arms, and feet. Frequently on pre-existing abrasions or sores, sometimes beginning from a scratch. As a rule, only one extremity is affected and usually there is a single lesion, although it is not uncommon to find multiple ulcers on two or more body parts.

9. Hemorrhoids — Hemorrhoids are swollen and inflamed veins around the anus or in the lower rectum. The rectum is the last part of the large intestine leading to the anus. The anus is the opening at the end of the digestive tract where bowel contents leave the body.

10. Sleep Terror Disorder - Sleep terror disorder is also known as night terrors. The disturbance cannot be due to the direct physiological effects of a substance (e.g., a drug of abuse, a medication) or a general medical condition. Sleep terror is characterized by the following symptoms that a mental health professional looks for when making a diagnosis for this condition:

- Recurrent episodes of abrupt awakening from sleep, usually occurring during the first third of the major sleep episode and beginning with a panicky scream.
- Intense fear and signs of autonomic arousal, such as tachycardia, rapid breathing, and sweating, during each episode.
- Relative unresponsiveness to efforts of others to comfort the person during the episode.
- No detailed dream is recalled and there is amnesia for the episode.
• The episodes cause clinically significant distress or impairment in social, occupational, or other important areas of functioning. [Source: veteranprograms.com May 1, 2017]

A NATIONAL MOMENT

OF SILENCE ON

VETERANS DAY

A new U.S. law creates an annual, national moment of silence on Veterans Day.

On October 7, 2016, President Obama signed the Veterans Day Moment of Silence Act, which provides for a national moment of silence, at the same time on Veterans Day each year, in honor of all Americans who have served in the U.S. Armed Forces. The legislation previously passed both the Senate and House of Representatives unanimously.

The moment of silence is designed to bring together Americans of all religious, political, and ideological affiliations as a powerful symbol of our unity and common purpose, and provide an opportunity to reflect on veterans who have touched our lives.

The new law requires that the President issue a proclamation calling on the people of the United States to observe a two-minute national moment of silence on Veterans Day at 3:11 p.m. Atlantic standard time, 2:11 p.m. eastern standard time, 1:11 p.m. central standard time, 12:11 p.m. mountain standard time, 11:11 a.m. Pacific standard time, 10:11 a.m. Alaska standard time, and 9:11 a.m. Hawaii-Aleutian standard time.

The moment of silence is supported by the American Legion, the National Guard Association of the United States, the Reserve Officers Association, and the Nurses Organization of Veteran’s Affairs.

The legislative effort was led by the Bendetson family – Michael, Daniel, and William Bendetson, supported by their father, Dr. Peter Bendetson. In 2010, the Bendetson family experienced Israel’s Day of Remembrance, when that nation pauses for two minutes in remembrance of its veterans. Moved by the experience, the Bendetsons encouraged Congress to establish a similar tradition in the United States. After six years and hundreds of contacts with Congress, the proposal has now become law.

VETERANS DAY 2017 POSTER: The Veterans Day National Committee announced its selection for the 2017 National Veterans Day Poster from more than 100 submissions. The winning poster was designed by Air Force veteran Robert Dubois, a retired high school teacher in Oregon. To view or download the poster, go to the VA’s Veterans Day Poster Gallery.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY—S. 1004:
CONGRESSIONAL RECORD:
7. VA UNVEILS CLAIMS SUBMISSION OPTION THAT PROMISES TO COMPLETE CLAIMS WITHIN 30 DAYS

WASHINGTON — As part of the Department of Veterans Affairs’ (VA) continued efforts to improve timeliness of services for Veterans and their families, VA unveiled the Decision Ready Claims (DRC) initiative, a disability claims submission option with accredited Veterans Service Organizations (VSO) that promises to deliver faster claims decisions to Veterans and their families. “The DRC initiative is a collaborative effort between VA and VSOs to help Veterans receive faster decisions on disability claims,” said VA Secretary Dr. David J. Shulkin. “VA works closely with participating VSOs to make sure they are properly trained in this new process and given the tools they need to participate successfully in the program on behalf of the Veterans they serve.”

Veterans who choose to submit their claim under DRC can expect to receive a decision within 30 days from the time VA receives the claim. VSOs will ensure all supporting evidence — such as medical exams, military service records, etc. — is included with the claim submission. This advance preparation by the VSOs allows claims to be assigned immediately to claims processors for a quick decision. DRC was first implemented May 1, 2017, at the St. Paul (Minn.) Regional Office, and is now available at all VA regional offices. While DRC is currently limited to claims for increased compensation (commonly known as claims for increase), and requires Veterans to work with VSOs, VA’s goal is to expand the types of claims accepted under the initiative and allow Veterans other ways to submit their claim under DRC.

DRC is another key step in aggressively modernizing VA’s benefits delivery to Veterans in a fully digital operating environment. With electronic claims processing as a foundation, VA’s innovation will improve service to Veterans, their families, and survivors.

8. FY 2018 NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT: On Monday, September 18th, 2017, the Senate voted 89-8 to overwhelmingly pass their version of the 2018 National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA). The Senate version authorizes $700 billion in total — $640 billion for the Pentagon’s base budget, and $60 billion to sustain ongoing operations in Afghanistan, Iraq and Syria. Included in the Senate version is a 2.1 percent pay increase for service members; $8.5 billion to strengthen missile defense; 24 additional F-35 joint strike fighters; 10 additional Boeing F/A-18 Super Hornets; five more Navy ships; and end-strength increases of 6,000 soldiers and 1,000 Marines. In light of this, the Senate version still includes TRICARE fee increases, which the KWVA strongly opposes, and is $83 billion above authorized budget caps for military spending. The House and Senate will meet next week to resolve any differences between their versions of the bill.

10. FREE VA CAREGIVER COURSE AVAILABLE ONLINE: The Department of Veterans Affairs partnered with PsychArmor Institute to provide a free online course to break down VA’s Caregiver Program. The course takes approximately 10 minutes and includes information about how VA is organized, who is eligible for the Caregiver Program, how to enroll in it, what documents are needed and where to apply. The course also offers tips and guidance on what actions to take after enrollment is complete, and what resources are available to help veterans and their caregivers. Take the online course

11. SECURITY SOCIAL SECURITY EXPEDITES DECISIONS TO THOSE WITH SERIOUS DISABILITIES - Compassionate Allowances List Grows

Nancy A. Berryhill, Acting Commissioner of Social Security, today announced three new Compassionate Allowances conditions: CACH--Vanishing White Matter Disease-Infantile and Childhood Onset Forms, Congenital Myotonic Dystrophy, and Kleefstra Syndrome. Compassionate Allowances are a way to quickly identify serious diseases and other medical conditions that meet Social Security's standards for disability benefits. “Social Security is committed – now and in the future – to continue to identify and fast-track diseases that are certain or near-certain to be approved for disability benefits,” said Acting Commissioner Berryhill. The Compassionate Allowances program identifies claims where the applicant’s disease or condition clearly meets Social Security’s statutory standard for disability. Many of these claims are allowed based on medical confirmation of the diagnosis alone, for example pancreatic cancer, amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), and acute leukemia. To date, almost 500,000 people with severe disabilities have been approved through this fast-track policy-compliant disability process, which has grown to a total of 228 conditions.

By incorporating cutting-edge technology, the agency can easily identify potential Compassionate Allowances and quickly make decisions. For other disability cases not covered by the Compassionate Allowances program, Social Security’s Health IT program brings the speed and efficiency of electronic medical records to the disability determination process. When a person applies for disability benefits, Social Security must obtain medical records in order to make an accurate determination. It may take weeks for health care organizations to provide records for the applicant’s case. With electronic records transmission, Social Security is able to quickly obtain a claimant's medical information, review it, and make a determination faster than ever before.

“The Compassionate Allowances and Health IT programs are making a real difference by ensuring that Americans with disabilities quickly receive the benefits they need,” added Ms. Berryhill.

For more information about the program, including a list of all Compassionate Allowances conditions, please visit www.socialsecurity.gov/compassionateallowances.

To learn more about Social Security’s Health IT program, please visit www.socialsecurity.gov/hit. People may apply online for disability benefits by visiting www.socialsecurity.gov. To create a my Social Security account, please visit www.socialsecurity.gov/myaccount.

12. KOREAN WAR VETERANS MEMORIAL WALL OF REMEMBRANCE:
Are you aware that the Korean War Veterans Memorial Foundation (a non-profit Foundation chartered in the District of Columbia) is seeking funding to place the names of the 36,574 fallen veterans on a Wall of Remembrance (WOR) to be added to the National Korean War Veterans Memorial in our Nation’s Capital, so as to honor all who gave their all during that War? That Wall of Remembrance will finally give credence to the Memorial’s theme that “Freedom is not Free.” Just as Huntsville honors its veterans from every war, so will the Foundation honor our nation’s veterans fallen in battle during the Korean War.

Someone once said that “our nation owes a debt to its fallen heroes that we can never fully repay, but we can honor their sacrifice” and that the Foundation seeks to do. It was just last October when the Foundation’s efforts to shepherd legislation through numerous Congresses finally succeeded in having the legislation signed into law (Public Law 114-230) to build that Wall - using solely private, tax-deductible, funding. If you are interested in writing another or follow up story on particularly the Korean War Veterans to let your community know of the Foundation’s efforts, please get back in touch with me.

VETERANS WHO DIED WITHOUT FAMILY LAID TO REST WITH FULL MILITARY HONORS

SAN ANTONIO - Three military veterans were simultaneously honored and laid to rest on Wednesday morning at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery. They are known as unaccompanied veterans who died with no surviving family members.

Retired Marines George Peel, Roberto Martinez and Army veteran Rick Pincus all passed away last month. They would have been buried in a pauper's grave had it not been for a local funeral home that sought to give the men a proper burial. Dozens of local volunteers attended the somber funeral to honor the men for their service. Local funeral homes picked up the costs of the services.

REVISIT TO KOREA PROGRAM:

Over 350 veterans and family members returned to Korea on the ROK government subsidized program that was commenced in 1975. The big change this year was that the Minister of Patriots and Veterans Affairs (MPVA) approved Korea Defense Veterans, and their families, going for the first time. We have been told that there are 160 allocations for Korean War Veterans and a family member to participate in 2017.

HOW THE EQUIFAX BREACH PUTS YOU AT RISK: In light of last week’s disclosure by credit reporting agency Equifax, where 143 million Americans had their sensitive personal information exposed, there are rising concerns that service members, veterans and their families will be disproportionately affected. Recent analysis by the Consumer Federation of America states that as a result of multiple Permanent Change of Station moves and deployments, service members, veterans and their family members are already twice as likely to have their personal financial information stolen. This recent breach only makes matters worse. While there is no immediate means for recourse, the KWVA recommends verifying if your information was compromised by going to the Equifax Cybersecurity Incident. In the event that it has, you will be given the option to enroll for free in TrustedID, which is Equifax’s credit monitoring service, for a period of one year.

For our active duty members, federal law provides you the right to place what is called an “Active Duty” alert on your credit report. This alert ensures that lenders must take additional steps to verify your identity prior to opening any new accounts. In order to sign up for the alert, you must register with each credit reporting agency separately — Equifax, Experian and TransUnion. Finally, it is worth noting that there has been a surge of scam artists posing as Equifax employees and calling people to verify their information. If you receive a call like this, do not reveal any of your information. Instead, take note of the phone number, the time, and the name of the individual and report it to the Federal Trade Commission.

---McKeague swears in as Director of Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency - September 5, 2017

The U.S. Department of Defense announced today the selection of Kelly McKeague to be the Director of the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency. McKeague was sworn in this morning during a ceremony at the Pentagon. McKeague, who retired from the U.S. Air Force in 2016 at the rank of major general, served as the DPAA Deputy Director and as the Commander of the Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command, one of the entities merged in 2015 to form the Department's newest defense agency.

"I know the importance of the agency's mission and I look forward to working with DPAA's team of dedicated professionals," said McKeague.

Fern Sumpter Winbush, who has been serving as Acting Director, will resume her role as Principal Deputy Director for the agency, responsible for formulating policy, overseeing business development, and increasing outreach initiatives.

"My time serving as the Acting Director has been challenging and rewarding as I worked to move the agency forward in our mission of providing the fullest possible accounting of U.S. personnel missing from past conflicts to the families and the nation," said Winbush. "As an agency, we have accomplished much over the last two years, and I am confident the incoming Director will take over an agency postured for continued success."

McKeague, who served as an independent business consultant since his military retirement, says he is looking forward to this opportunity.

"I am humbled and blessed to serve on behalf of the families whose loved ones served our country," he said. "The fulfillment of this agency's solemn obligation is my honor to endeavor."

A native of Hawaii, McKeague began his military career in 1981 as a civil engineering officer, serving in a variety of assignments at base, major command and Headquarters U.S. Air Force levels. In 1995, he entered the Maryland Air National Guard and served on active duty as a civil engineer. His assignments include the Air National Guard Readiness Center, followed by legislative liaison tours at the Office of the Secretary of the Air Force and the National Guard Bureau. He also served as the Chief of Staff, National Guard Bureau and Assistant to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff for National Guard Matters.

GREETINGS FROM NEW DPAA DIRECTOR

To our Family Group, Veteran Service Organization, and Military Service Organization Partners,

I am humbled and honored to have been entrusted to lead the dedicated DPAA team in dutifully and attentively serving this sacred humanitarian mission. I'm also privileged to again be able to partner with you and your organizations.

In my first message to the DPAA team, I reinforced that accountability to the families of those who paid the ultimate sacrifice and are missing must guide our words and actions. To abide as such, my teammates and I must apply a personal sense of responsibility and be resolute in accomplishing our duties.

The resources and will the Department of Defense devotes to this vital mission is the result of a moral imperative that also defines us as Americans. I pledge to you to be a servant-leader of consequence and to strive to make a difference to the DPAA team, this mission, to you, and most importantly, to the families. I look forward to reconnecting with you at next Friday's POW/MIA Recognition Ceremony, or our Oct 6th update to all of you.

With gratitude for all you do,

Kelly McKeague
Director, Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency

Navy Hospital Corpsman 1st Class William G. Payne, killed during the Korean War, has now been accounted for. Interment services are pending; a formal notification will be released 7-10 days prior to scheduled funeral services.

DPAA is appreciative to the Department of Veterans Affairs for their partnership in this mission.

Payne's name is recorded on the Walls of the Missing at an American Battle Monuments Commission site along with the other MIAs from the Korean War.

National POW/MIA Recognition Day: The KWVA joined in ceremonies at the Pentagon today to honor our nation’s former prisoners of war, and to remember nearly 83,000 other Americans who remain missing and unaccounted-for going back to World War II, as well as their families. The nation sets aside the third Friday in September to recognize and remember former POWs and our MIAs, but for nearly 700 military and civilian men and women assigned to the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency, every day is another opportunity to recover, identify and return a fallen American home to a loving family that still waits. SAN FRANCISCO UNVEILS MEMORIAL TO WWII 'COMFORT WOMEN'

People move in to take a closer look at the "Comfort Women" monument after it was unveiled Friday, Sept. 22, 2017, in San Francisco. The monument was dedicated to the young women victims of Japanese military sexual slavery from 1932 until the end of World War II in 1945.

By ELLEN KNICKMEYER | Associated Press | Published: September 23, 2017

SAN FRANCISCO — Now 89, former World War II "comfort woman" Yongsoo Lee clutched a microphone in one hand Friday in a park outside San Francisco's Chinatown, thrust her other clinched fist in the air, and made a vow.

Lee, abducted from her Korean homeland at 15 and forced into working in brothels servicing Japanese soldiers, was speaking at the dedication of the latest of dozens of statues put up around the world, commemorating the ordeal of thousands of women like her in territory held by the Japanese army before and during World War II.

Japan has not gone far enough in apologizing, and the statues memorializing those the Japanese army called "comfort women" for their soldiers will keep going up, Lee, her frame bent in traditional green and pink Korean robes, told the scores at Friday's unveiling ceremony.

And at the end, we will have a memorial in Tokyo. So they can say, 'I'm sorry, I'm sorry' when they pass by," said Lee, who came from South Korea for Friday's ceremony, as she has for at least four other such dedications in the United States alone.

Historians say tens of thousands of women, and perhaps hundreds of thousands, were seized in Asian territories under Japanese military control and made to work in military brothels. The issue has remained an open rift between Japan and other Asian nations. Surviving comfort-women and their supporters rejected a 2015 statement from Japan expressing "apologies and remorse," saying it did not go far enough in acknowledging what they say was the Japanese government's responsibility.
"If Japan does not like" the continued focus on comfort women, Lee told the crowd, through a translator, "Japan must apologize." On Friday, the South Korean and Japanese foreign ministers, meeting in New York, agreed to work together to resolve their countries' lingering differences over the episode, according to Japan's Kyodo news agency.

No more than a few dozen of the comfort women remain alive, said retired San Francisco Judge Lillian Sing, who was a leader in the effort by California's Korean, Chinese and Filipino communities to commission and put up the statue, in a park on the edge of San Francisco's Chinatown.

"What these grandmas did was change the way the world looked at sex-trafficking," Sing told the state and local dignitaries and others in the audience.
VA Appeals Modernization: The Road to Reform

VA's Legacy Appeals Structure

- VA's former appeal framework was set in law after World War I. The process was slow, complex, confusing, and failing Veterans.
- Because the process was too complicated, contained many unnecessary steps, and was confusing for Veterans to navigate, it was very challenging for VA to explain the appeals process in simple terms.
- In the former, broken appeals process, VA’s appeals inventory grew approximately 10 percent annually.
- For all appeals, Veterans were waiting an average of 3 years for a resolution, and Veterans who appealed to the Board of Veterans' Appeals were waiting an average of 6 years for a resolution.

Appeals Reform

- In March 2016, VA sponsored an “Appeals Summit” with Veterans Service Organizations (VSOs) and other stakeholders to design a new, comprehensive legal framework that is simple, timely, transparent, and fair.
- The summit resulted in draft a legislative proposal outlining the new appeals system. On May 24, 2017, the House passed the Veterans Appeals Improvement and Modernization Act of 2017 and referred the bill to the Senate for consideration.
- Once signed into law, VA will implement the new appeals system over an 18-month period.
- VA aims to address the legacy inventory by leveraging additional budget and manpower resources in an effort to process all appeals within 1 year by 2023.
- In an effort to streamline and improve appeals processing immediately, VA realigned its administrative appeals program under the Appeals Management Office, formerly known as the Appeals Management Center (AMC).
- The realignment created a single accountable office responsible for overseeing VA appeals. Previously, jurisdiction was split between the AMC and 56 regional offices within the Veterans Benefits Administration.

Advantages of Appeal Reform

- Speeds resolution of appeals by reducing bottlenecks.
- Provides claimants more options by allowing them to tailor the process to their needs and control their VA appeal experience.
- Simplifies the appeal process by eliminating unnecessary and repetitive steps.
- Establishes greater protection of claimants’ rights by preserving the earliest possible effective date for an award of benefits regardless of the path the Veteran chooses.
- Improves quality and accuracy of decisions by creating feedback mechanisms enabling VA to reduce errors and produce better decisions for Veterans.

VA Unveils Claims Submission Option That Promises to Complete Claims within 30 Days

WASHINGTON — Today, as part of the Department of Veterans Affairs’ (VA) continued efforts to improve timeliness of services for Veterans and their families, VA unveiled the Decision Ready Claims (DRC) initiative, a disability claims submission option with accredited Veterans Service Organizations (VSO) that promises to deliver faster claims decisions to Veterans and their families.

“The DRC initiative is a collaborative effort between VA and VSOs to help Veterans receive faster decisions on disability claims,” said VA Secretary Dr. David J. Shulkin. “VA works closely with participating VSOs to make sure they are properly trained in this new process and given the tools they need to participate successfully in the program on behalf of the Veterans they serve.”

Veterans who choose to submit their claim under DRC can expect to receive a decision within 30 days from the time VA receives the claim. VSOs will ensure all supporting evidence — such as medical exams, military service records, etc. — is included with the claim submission. This advance preparation by the VSOs allows claims to be assigned immediately to claims processors for a quick decision.

DRC was first implemented May 1, 2017, at the St. Paul (Minn.) Regional Office, and is now available at all VA regional offices. While DRC is currently limited to claims for increased compensation (commonly known as claims for increase), and requires Veterans to work with VSOs, VA’s goal is to expand the types of claims accepted under the initiative and allow Veterans other ways to submit their claim under DRC.

DRC is another key step in aggressively modernizing VA’s benefits delivery to Veterans in a fully digital operating environment. With electronic claims processing as a foundation, VA’s innovation will improve service to Veterans, their families, and survivors.

Summary: Keeping the families of our missing as well as veterans informed is a primary objective of the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency's (DPAA) mission. Towards that end, this Summary is intended to provide an overview of past and future efforts to account for our missing.

Items of Note:

- Mr. Kelly McKeague was selected and sworn in as the Director of Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency on September 5.

- The Deputy Director, Brigadier General Mark Spindler, will be retiring at the end of September. His replacement, Rear Admiral Jon Kreitz arrived September 18 and will officially assume duties as the Deputy Director on October 3.

- The new Agency Chief of Staff, Mr. Scott Ebell, was selected and arrived September 18 as well.

- DPAA, along with the Department of Defense and other Federal agencies will begin Fiscal Year (FY) 2018 on October 1, 2017 under a continuing resolution (CR). The CR will expire on December 8, 2017. The DPAA budget request of $131.268M has not received any Congressional marks (reductions) from authorization or appropriation committees, and have yet to address sequestration requirements which could have an impact on our budget.

*The DPAA FY18 first quarter operations were planned in consideration of the CR.

- Every year, on the third Friday in September, National POW/MIA Recognition Day ceremonies are now held throughout the nation and at U.S. Embassies. This year’s Pentagon Ceremony at the River Terrace Parade Field, honored all returned POWs and renewed our national commitment to accounting for those still missing. The event was hosted by Deputy Secretary of Defense, Patrick Shanahan. For photos of the Pentagon Ceremony, please see https://www.flickr.com/photos/depscdef/albums/72157688460373986.

• STATUS OF KOREAN WAR MUSEUM:
  State Journal Register, Springfield, IL
  By Tim Landis
  Korean War veteran Jim McCrocklin says he isn’t so much concerned about the return of his wartime footlocker and other donations to the defunct Korean National War Museum as he is about seeing the testament to the Forgotten War survive in some fashion.

  The 86-year-old Springfield resident, who served as Army infantry in Korea from 1951 to 1952, said he has heard little since operators of the museum on Old Capitol Plaza locked the doors on July 29, leaving exhibits behind and apparently relocating others.

  In addition to his footlocker, McCrocklin said he donated a uniform, dress shoes, socks and other items shortly before the museum opened at the Springfield location in 2009.

  “Don’t get me wrong,” said McCrocklin. “I don’t really want them back. I donated for a cause. People donated a lot of money. It’s the ‘Forgotten War’ and forgotten guys. I really don’t want to see this fall by the wayside.”

  Just what became of museum exhibits remains unclear, including to Korean War veterans groups. The Illinois Attorney General’s Office is investigating the abrupt shutdown and what became of donations. The Korean War National Museum, based in Chicago, voluntarily dissolved effective Aug. 4, according to corporate registration records at the Illinois Secretary of State’s Office, meaning the group can no longer raise money in Illinois.

  A New Jersey-based charity watchdog group this week issued a nationwide “high concern” advisory on the organization after The State Journal-Register reported on more than $586,000 in museum financial losses from 2010 to 2015.

  “The concerns raised about organizational legitimacy and/or federal tax law compliance are serious both in nature and scope,” said the advisory from Charity Navigator.

  The museum website and Facebook page have been taken down, and repeated phone and email messages left at the Springfield and Chicago offices for the museum have not been returned since the closing.

  Secretary of State spokesman Dave Druker said suspension of corporate registration requires only a notice from the company or not-for-profit.

  “It’s fairly standard for an organization that’s going out of business,” said Druker.

  The Illinois Attorney General’s Office also suspended the museum’s not-for-profit registration after the group failed to file a 2016 financial disclosure.

  According to the last disclosure filed with the state, the museum lost money all but one year from 2010 to 2015, despite reporting revenue of more than $7 million. The museum reported spending more than $245,000 on direct mail solicitation and professional fundraising in 2015, as well as more than $204,000 on salaries and executive compensation.
There have been no outward signs of work at the museum since the abrupt closing July 29 and Korean War veterans organizations say they have had little success in tracking the fate of exhibits that ranged from weapons to a library of Korean War history.

“It’s unfortunate,” said Carl Greenwood, president of the Illinois Korean Memorial Association. The group, which is unrelated to the museum, was instrumental in creation of the Korean War Memorial dedicated in 1996 at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Springfield.

He questioned how little there was to show for the millions reportedly raised by the museum, by pointing out $1.6 million was raised to build the Korean War Memorial, including $500,000 in donated labor, design work and materials.

“It was all volunteer. Every donation went to the memorial,” said Greenwood.

The Illinois Korean Memorial Association was never involved with the museum, said Greenwood, though at one point he loaned the museum a podium for special events.

“When I heard they were going out of business, I got my podium back,” said Greenwood.

• DISABILITY COMPENSATION DECISION READY CLAIMS

DECISION READY CLAIM OVERVIEW

The Decision Ready Claim (DRC) initiative is a claims submission option through an accredited Veterans Service Organization (VSO) representative which allows VA to complete your claim within 30 days of submission. Under the DRC initiative, your accredited representative will assist you in ensuring all supporting evidence (e.g. medical exams) is included with your claim at the time of submission.

WHAT TYPES OF DISABILITY CLAIMS ARE ELIGIBLE THROUGH THE DRC INITIATIVE?

At this time, the DRC initiative can be used to submit disability compensation claims for increase. A compensation claim for increase is a claim for a disability that the Veteran is currently service connected for and is requesting an increase to the current disability evaluation due to the condition worsening.

HOW CAN I FILE MY CLAIM UNDER THE DRC INITIATIVE?

In order to file a disability compensation claim under the DRC initiative, you need to appoint an accredited VSO representative. Your accredited representative plays an essential role in determining whether DRC is right for you.

If you don’t have an accredited representative, you can appoint one online through www.ebenefits.va.gov/ebenefits/vso-search or visit your nearest VA regional benefit office for assistance.

You can find the nearest location online through https://www.va.gov/directory/guide/division.asp?dnum=3&isFlash=0

WHAT IS AN ACCREDITED VSO REPRESENTATIVE?

An accredited VSO representative is an individual who has undergone a formal application and training process, and is recognized by VA as a qualified advocate for Veterans. Many VSOs are private non-profit groups that advocate on behalf of Veterans, Service members, dependents and survivors. Accredited representatives may also work for state or county government entities. VSOs provide their services free-of-charge, but they may request reimbursement for unusual expenses.

For More Information about the DRC initiative, call Toll-Free 1-800-827-1000.

Disabilities determined by VA to be related to your military service can lead to monthly non-taxable compensation, enrollment in the VA healthcare system, a 10-point hiring preference for federal employment and other important benefits. Ask your VA representative or Veterans Service Organization representative about Disability Compensation, Pension, Health Care, Caregiver Program, Career Services, Educational Assistance, Home Loan Guaranty, Insurance and/or Dependents and Survivors’ Benefits.
