

COVER: U.S. Airmen from 51st Fighter Wing public affairs stand under the ship Cheonan at the ROK Navy 2nd Fleet Command in Pyeongtaek-si, Gyeonggi-do Province on Feb. 26, 2016. The ship was attacked by a North Korean submarine at 9:22 p.m. on March 26, 2010, killing 46 ROK Sailors. It is one of many recent attacks on South Korea from North Korea patrols. (U.S. Air Force photo by Senior Airman Kristin High/Released)

8

22

53

62

CONTENTS

Business

From the President	3
From the Secretary	7
Thanks for Supporting The Graybeards and the KWVA	10
2019 Fundraiser	25
Application for Korea Revisit & PCFY Tours	66
Official Membership Application Form	69

Features & Articles

Where were you on July 27th?	18
The morning after July 27, 1953	18
And we weren't even at the Reservoir yet	63
My memory of Korea's ammo shortage	64
Operation Kiddy Car	74

Departments

Reunion Calendar 2019	6
The Editor's Desk	9
Q & A	10
Book Review	11
Members in the News	12
Korean War MIAs Recently Identified	14
Recon Missions	16
Humor in Korea	21
Tell America	28
Chapter & Department News	32
Feedback/Return Fire	58
Last Call	65
Welcome Aboard	68

News & Notes

New KWVA Directors	6
Why Be an Associate Member of the KWVA?	6
Graybeards to Change Format	7
Destroyer Named in Honor of Korean War Veteran	8
Five extra months in Korea isn't that funny	15
DPAA Budget	15
Careful What You Cut	21
Be careful what you write	22
Another treasure trove found	23
Two presidents meet	24
'Mighty Mo' gets stamp of approval	24
The National Museum of the U.S. Army Nears Completion	27
Ch. 321 goes all out to raise funds for Wall of Remembrance	30
Mumps and antique washboards	54
KWVA Online Store	56
Tunnels	57
KWVA Annual Membership Meeting: Flyer/Agenda	72
Korea, Never Ending War	78
An unholy Easter	79