

“KOREAN WAR VETERANS”

Commemorating the 64th Armistice signing July 1953

Remembering Americas’ Forgotten

date/time: Saturday, July 22, 2017 @ 10:30 am place: Kennedy Park, 11320 S. Western Ave
Chicago, IL. 60643

Synopsis: In 1986 from an idea by Korean War veteran Ed McCarthy created an inspiration along with the Windy City Veterans Association. Two years later after several blockbusting fundraisers that followed, the very first memorial known to have been built in the USA was dedicated in Chicago on September 15, 1988, in memory to both men and women who had served during the Korea War.

Please Save the Date and join individual members from various veteran organizations as we come together to show America, these heroes will be forever Remembered.
Contact info: Chicago MARINES at LZ4vets@gmail.com or 773. 704. 2150.