

60TH ANNIVERSARIES OF THE KOREAN WAR KWVA KOREA REVISIT

Korean War Veterans & family members,

The KVA, Korea Veterans Association, (Seoul) started the program in 1975 which is now hosted by the MPVA, Ministry of Patriots and Veterans Affairs, by providing Korean War Veterans and their families free hotel accommodations, bus tours of Seoul, Incheon and the DMZ, and all meals in Korea. The Land of Morning Calm remembers and sincerely appreciates all veterans who fought and sacrificed in securing freedom and democracy for the Republic of Korea.

On Veteran's Day 2010 in Seoul, President Obama shakes the hand of Medal of Honor Recipient Hector Cafferata.

Expanded Eligibility

Korean War veterans and/or family members of one who served in, over or around the Korean theater between June 25, 1950 and October 15, 1954 are eligible to participate in the "Korea Revisit Program." A veteran is allowed to bring a family member or friend as a "travel companion". Widows and/or descendants are also eligible. If a Veteran or family member has been back to Korea on a previous subsidized tour that took place over five (5) years ago and would like to go again, please contact us for details.

The Korean government is continuing to discount the veterans & family members/companion airfare for the 60th Anniversaries, in addition to already paying for hotel, meals and touring in Korea.

There will be major ceremonies throughout 2013 commemorating the important battles and campaigns of 1953. Demand was great in 2010, 2011 & 2012 with sold out Revisits for 1300+ participants, so register now for next year's important revisits!

Sign up now for May, June, July & Sept 2013!

NEW 2013 VIETNAM POST TOUR

Day 1: Your flight arrives in Saigon/HCMC in the evening & check into one of the most famous 5-star hotels in Saigon.

Day 2: We start with a morning tour of the Cu Chi tunnels, these ingenious underground tunnel complexes were used by the Viet Cong during the war. In the afternoon, we tour the War Museum, Notre Dame Cathedral, China Town, and the Old Post Office. After dinner, experience the nightspots that have returned to downtown Saigon.

Day 3: Morning flight to Da Nang. After a short city tour and walk on Red Beach where the U.S. Marines first landed in 1965 and China Beach from the famous TV show. We travel to Hoi An to visit the artisans guild, the historic Japanese covered bridge, and the trader's house. This is the ultimate shopping extravaganza as bargains of traditional handmade wares & clothing are available at exceptional prices.

Day 4: Today, we will explore Marble Mountain with a chance to climb to the top and visit to the traditional stone carvers. In the afternoon, we depart by motorcoach for Hue, passing through the scenic Hai Van Pass. This important city has been restored to its colonial glory and is one of the most beautiful cities in Asia.

Day 5: We tour Hue to include the Citadel, the ancient forbidden city of Vietnam's historic Cham dynasty. You will see remnants of the bloody struggle that ensued during the recapture of this fortress by the U.S. Marines during Tet in 1968. The afternoon we boat up the Perfume River to see the towering Thien Mu Pagoda and the majestic gardens of King Tu Duc's tomb. We depart for Hanoi on an evening flight.

Day 6: We conclude our Vietnam Experience with a tour of Hanoi sites including the "Hanoi Hilton" - the infamous wartime prison, the Senator John McCain Monument, the One Pillar Pagoda built in 1409 and the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum. After a final stop downtown for last minute shopping we have a late checkout as we leave for our departure flight.
